You are unique . . .
There is only one you
In the whole world . . .
Today was made for you.

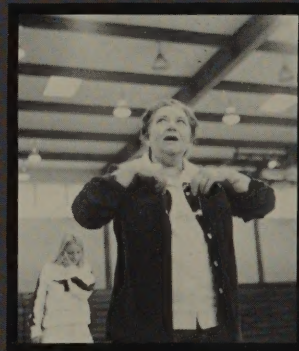

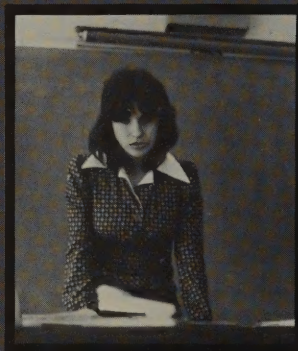

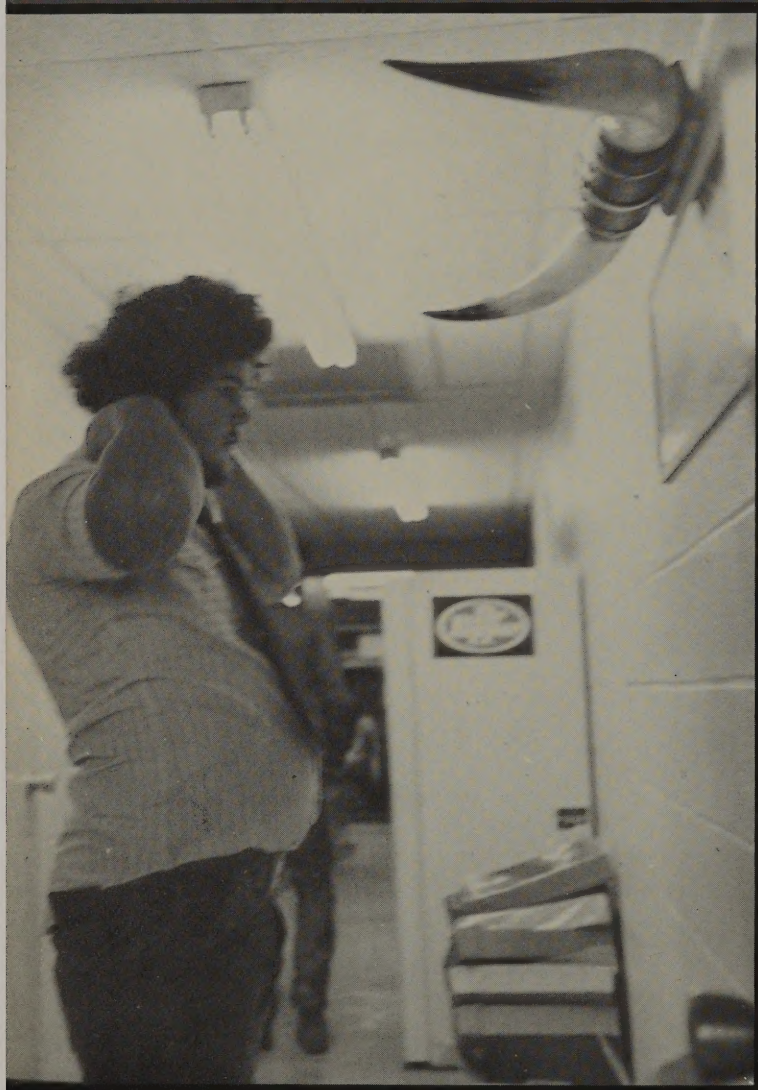

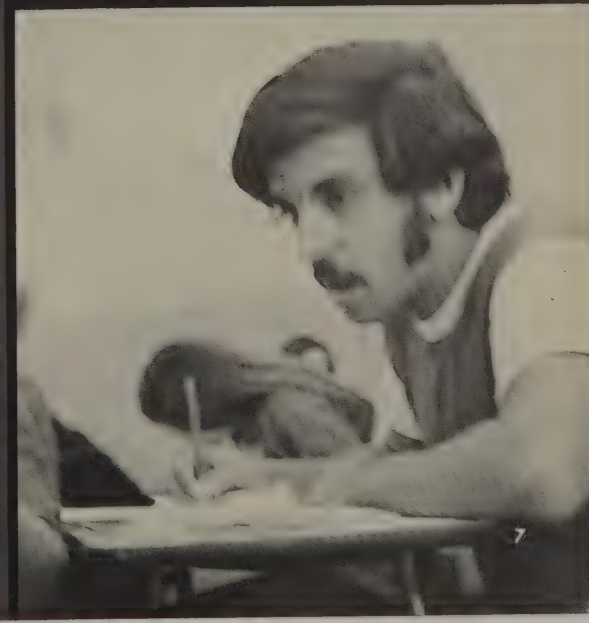

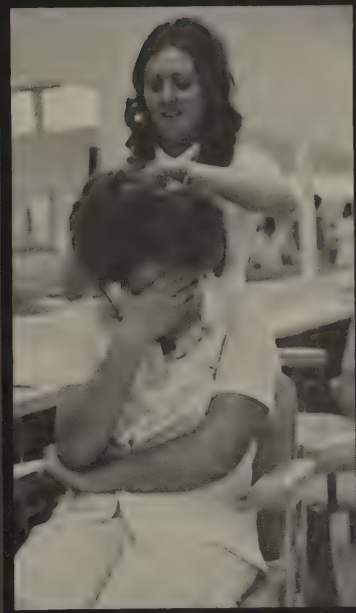

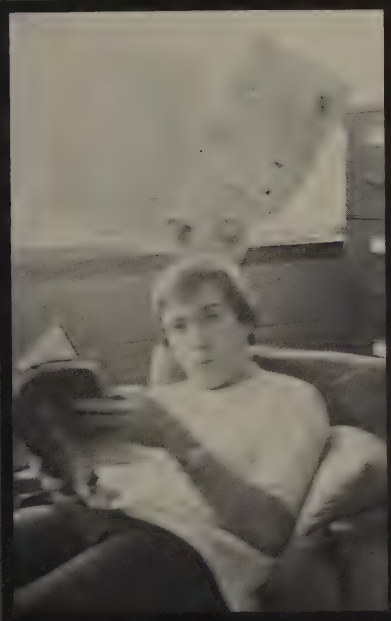

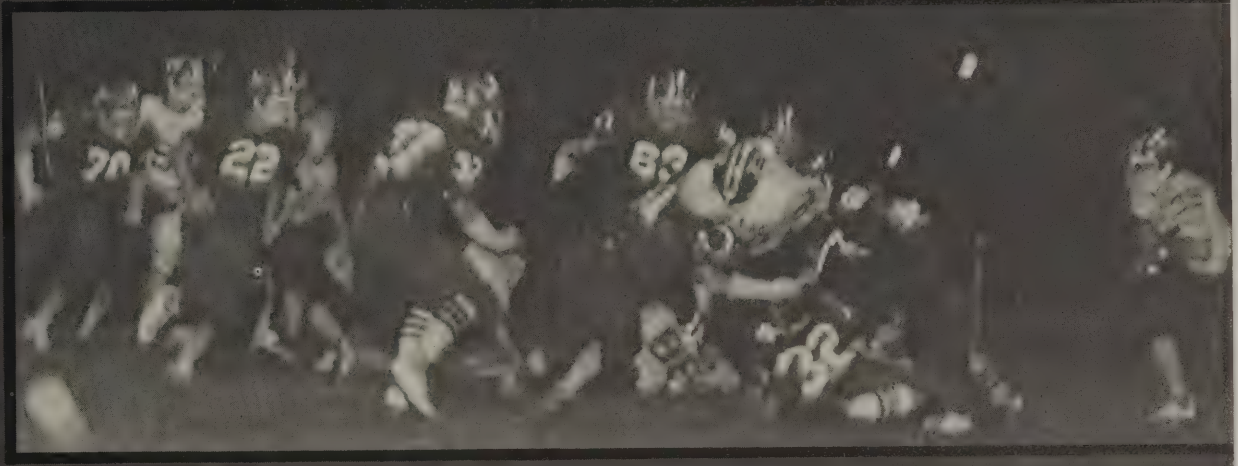

Today — each day a new beginning —
The starting point for human destiny.
Those who search discover an identity
Uniquely their own.
Life reveals itself
a portion everyday.

No day is ever the same as another.

In time

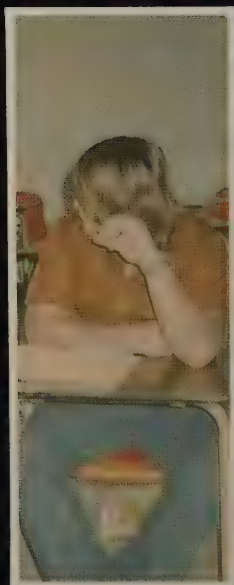

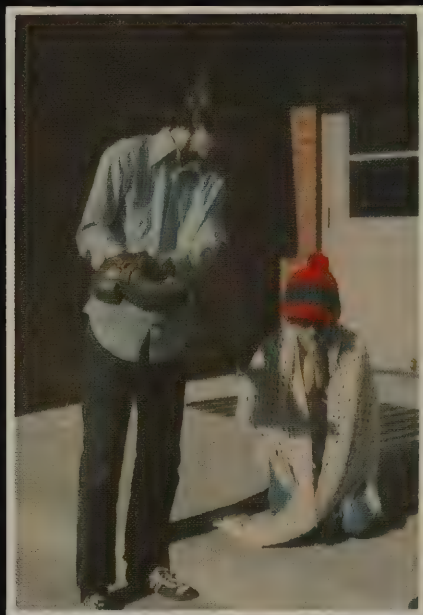

I'll change

And you.

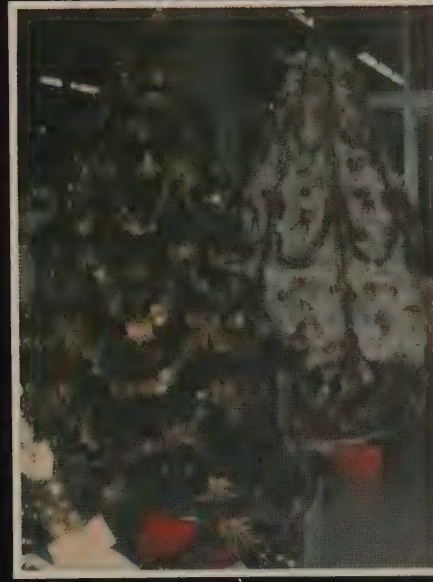

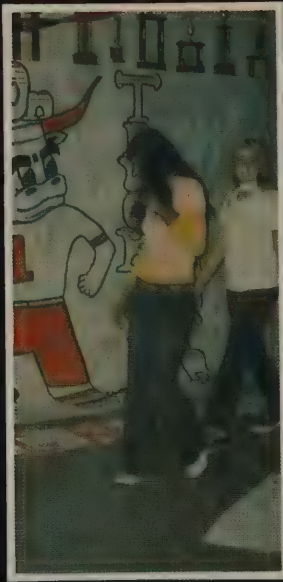

But the image of this year will never fade from us . . .

This year is Unforgettable!

This year we have grown taller . . .

stronger . . .

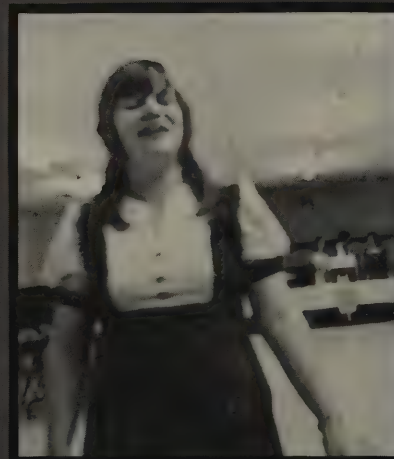

firmer . . .

warmer . . .

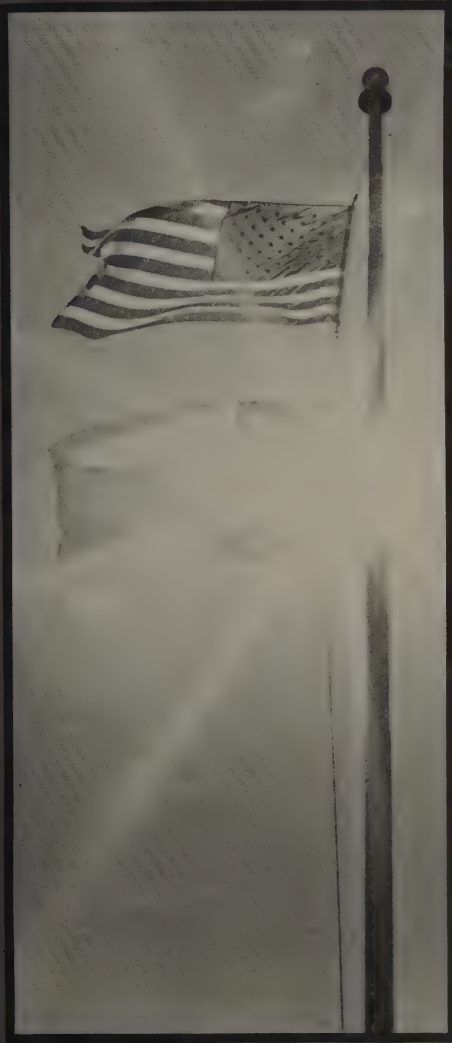

We've reached new heights . . .

We've seen visions never dreamed before . . .

We've experienced life . . .

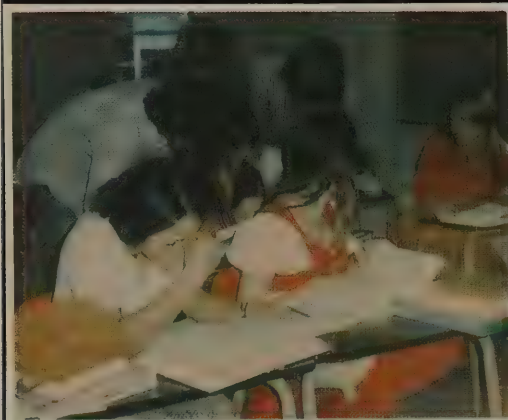

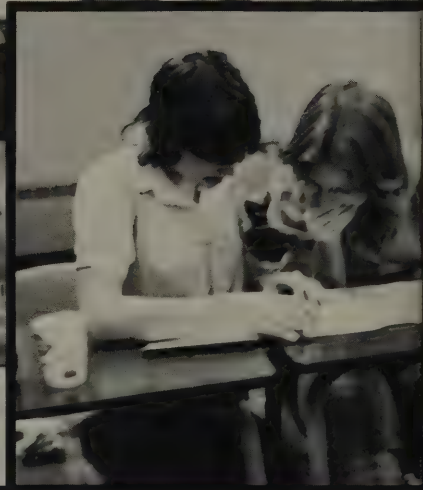

Looking back
on the everyday events
of this school year
we see
we have gained a valuable part of our education —

"Lovers in Midsummer" is an adaptation of Shakespeare's MIDSUMMER'S NIGHT DREAMS. As our entry in the One-Act Play Competition - it was a District Winner. Mrs. Ott and the cast took it to Regional -

The costumes were colorful and becoming - and appropriate. The actors put their hearts into their performance. It was a happening worth remembering!

Graduates Step Into New Realm of Life

74 young adults
clad in cap and gown:
Some weep, some smile,
most listen quietly
to the speakers . . .

All try to realize that it's finally happening . . .

Then . . .

Each name is called: each
One steps forward, receiving A diploma and the new World that awaits him or her.

Afterward . . .

Laughter, tears, happy shouts of disbelief . . .

A swell of emotion as friends and families
greet and part . . .

An evening never to be forgotten
by 74 young adults
clad in caps and gowns.

Banner Night for Seniors

Oh, the Juniors' Top Two, Elaine Gage and Paul Hawkins, walked them in at exactly 8:00 PM on May 23, 1975

Since about 7:00, however, they had been getting set for the great entrance . . . putting on and taking off . . . whispering and laughing . . . watching the clock.

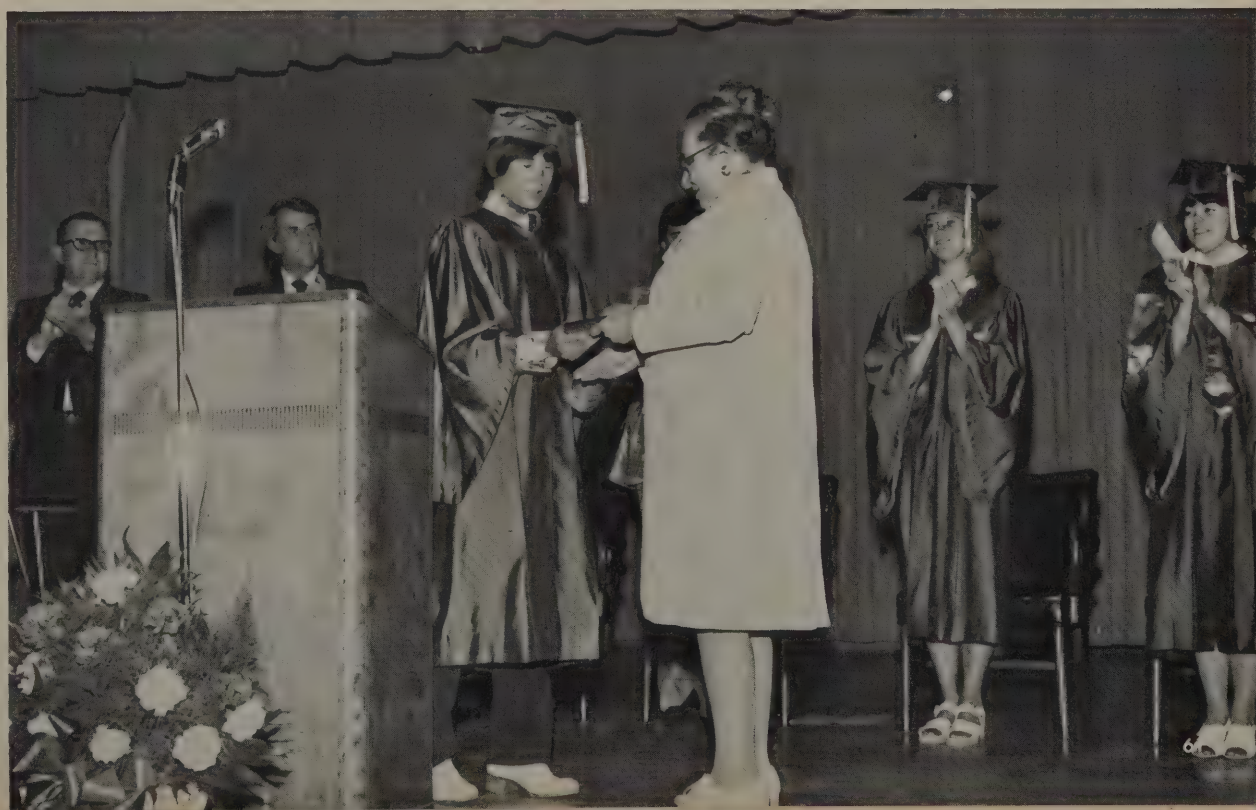

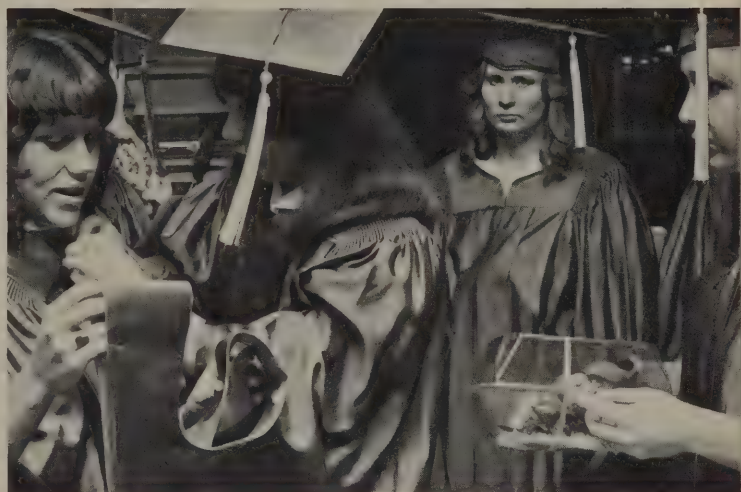

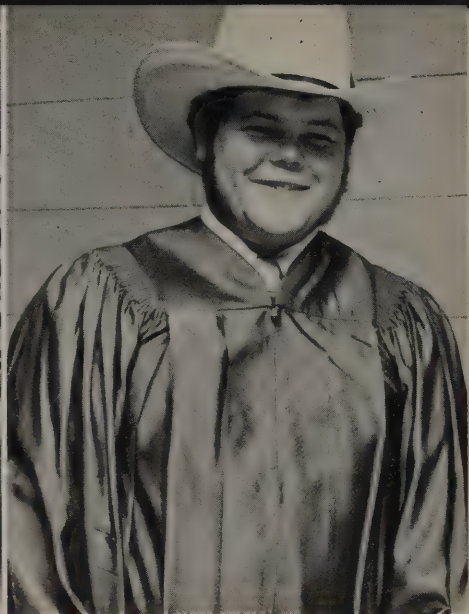

Mrs. Eitelman and Mr. Boatright were sponsors to the end - lined them up, inspected, and let them go.

The Seniors made some special presentations - to Mr. Hawkins, Mrs. Penn and Lucy Eaglehurst . . . John Hendricks, class president, made those presentations . . .

Russell took his hat off . . . and when it was over put it back on again.

Comes an Awesome Moment When They Called a Name . . .

1975 Longhorn Award

Mike Sims

receives the 1975 Longhorn Award from his principal, W. S. Permenter during Graduation Exercises, May 23, 1975

This award is presented to that student who has contributed most to the spirit of the school both in the community and at school. It is a coveted, hard won trophy symbolizing work, cooperation, scholarship, service, and good fellowship.

Mike Sims exemplified all of these qualities . . . athletic trainer, photographer, Ag star, electronics expert, carpenter . . . no job was too simple or too difficult.

Scarlets Undefeated

The 1975 Scarlet Track Team went undefeated as a team through the district meet as they scored 168 points to win the Scarlet Relays, 114 1/2 to win at Crowley, and a school record 204 points to win the district 12-AA District Championship. Lee Watson scored 32 points and was named the Most Outstanding Athlete at the District meet. Fourteen Scarlets qualified for the Regional Meet as Cedar Hill had an entry in every event except the 60 and 100 yard dashes. At the Regional meet Darla Elliott set a new school record in the discus at 98' 5 1/2" and Lee Watson became the first Scarlet Track Team member to qualify for the State Meet in Austin.

The Top Brass

School Board Sets Standards and Policies: Administration Makes Them Go . . .

1) Charles W. Hawkins has been a very effective Acting Superintendent of Schools since Dr. Brooks' resignation. The state of affairs, the cumbersome reports, the plans for the year were not new to him since he had been pinch-hitter for Dr. Brooks during his long illness. 2) Don Smith (Board President), Joe Pitt, Nolan Brooks (Vice-President), and C. E. Patzig cheerfully discuss the business at hand. 3) Don Smith, Billie Ann Hozdulick, and Dr. Glenn Clark confer at a recent Board meeting. 4) Nolan Brooks, John A. Krueger (Board Secretary), C. E. Patzig discuss a problem. 5) Joe Pitt and James Nicholson share a comment. 6) Billie Ann Hozdulick, Secretary to the Superintendent.

Principals Are the Busiest People . . .

1) W. S. Permenter, Acting High School Principal.
2) George Walker, Acting Middle School Principal.

To run a school: to try and keep classes running smoothly: to deal with students: to reason with parents: to make schedule changes . . . and smile That's a principal . . .

The Staff Makes Up a Fantastic Specialty Team

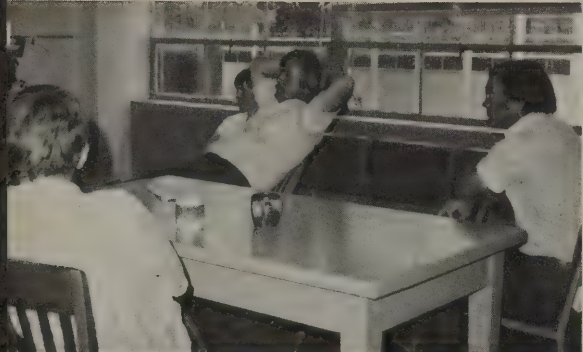

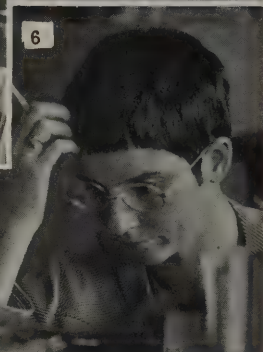

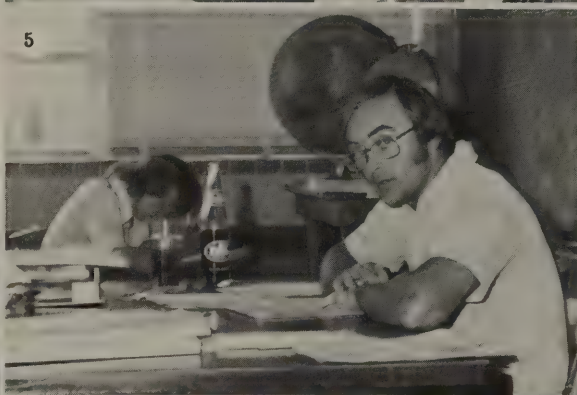

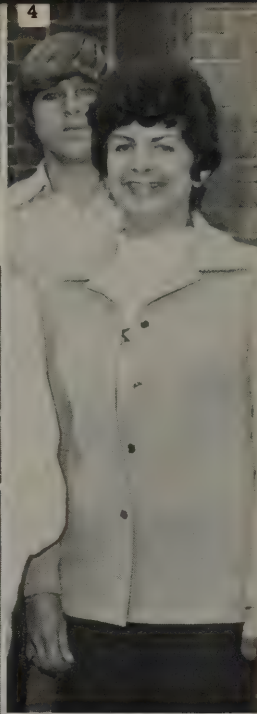

3) Jean Pogue, High School Secretary, 4) Joyce Wolfe, Middle School Secretary, 5) Shirley Smith, Bookkeeper and Business Office 6) Louise Hathaway, School Nurse 7) Debbie Bertrand, substitute High School Secretary and Diane Butler, School Counselor. 8) Becky Sweitzer, teacher's aide and receptionist, and Jean Pogue.

Ladies at Work . . . Beautiful People

1) FRANCINE McKAMIE, supervisor of Cedar Hill Lunchrooms, plans it all and sees it served: 2) The ladies dress for the Hallowe'en celebration: 3) FLOSSIE SIMS does fantastic things with food and a friendly spirit: 4) PAT HOGAN makes the snack bar a fine place to eat and to chat: 5) BETSY WILSON, aide in Middle School, sells lunchroom tickets and takes your money . . . : 6) GALDYSLARIBBLE makes the best hot rolls, biscuit and cinnamon rolls in the world: 7) LOUISE KING has a way with vegetables and serves them with aplomb: 8) FLORINE LE STOURGEON gives an extra touch to snack bar delicacies: 9) DEBBIE BERTRAND is the world's most versatile substitute - as an aide, a clerk, a secretary and receptionist - she's almost a regular employee!

They Know the Answers

1) MILES EVANS, Head of the Custodial Services. A true friend to Cedar Hill schools - and loved in return by all: 2) RICHARD WORKMAN, High School, gets ready to clean up the mud after one more sudden shower - or maybe somebody spilled a coke . . . : 3) O. H. POPE, Middle School, likes tidy halls and shining floors . . . : 4) MILDRED DAVIDSON adds the important feminine touch to all the housekeeping chores . . . : 5) JACK KING, Maintenance, watches Coy Rountree, ICT trainee, check out the air conditioning . . .

Thanks . . .

The yearbook for 1974-1975 is finished. We, members of THE LONGHORN staff, wish to thank our advertisers - you make the book possible. We owe special thanks to THE CHRONICLE for their splendid cooperation and to Ken Hardin for his kindnesses in making bad pics better and for his understanding. Our staff photographers - Mike Sims, Richard De Wald and Tim Knight - have worked long and odd hours. Then, we thank the people in the pictures for their patience and interest. If you gave us a helping hand - and there are many from the front office to the homes of students - we thank you.

Each volume of THE LONGHORN is a new experience. Look at this one. Remember . . . friends, fun, tragedies, accomplishments. Search for yourself . . . Consider how many pictures, records, days are involved. This is the last book many of us will work on . . . we have tried to make it a complete showing of this year's story.

Bill,

You are a real sweet guy.
You're a real good-lookin' guy.
You've been one of my greatest friends since I can remember.

Stay the way you are except grow taller. Good luck in the future! Keep on smiling 😊!

Go a real cool dude that's a good friend. You're a little wild sometimes but you're still a good friend
